

Tokay Radio Control Modelers BY-LAWS

Article 1: Name

The name of the club will be Tokay Radio Control Modelers (TRCM), hereafter referred to as the club.

Article 2: Purpose

The mission of Tokay Radio Control Modelers will be to introduce and promote the sport of model aviation to all persons of all ages in the Lodi and surrounding area.

Article 3: Membership/Dues

1. All persons shall be eligible for membership, and shall agree to abide by the Club's bylaws, and those of the AMA. All New Members and Active Members are required to maintain AMA membership, pay dues and keep a current signed TRCM Release & Indemnification Agreement on file with the Treasurer.
2. New Member applicants shall be introduced in person by an Active Member sponsor. Further, prior to new member introduction, the new member applicant shall provide a completed TRCM Member Application together with a check (or cash) in the amount of $200 (initiation fee) There shall only be one $200 fee required per family household plus the regular annual dues (prorated as indicated in paragraph #6 below). An optional payment plan of $110 with the application and the final payment of $110 due by the next dues renewal is available. The Club Membership shall review the application and, upon majority approval vote of those members present at the meeting, shall approve the application for membership.
3. Types of membership and limits on the total number of members shall be determined by the Board of Directors and passage by a simple majority vote of the membership present at a meeting.
4. Each new member must fly the first time at the club field with a club instructor who will review the club safety and field rules, AMA safety rules, and ascertain that the new member can adequately, safely fly his aircraft.
5. Junior members are those up through eighteen years of age. Senior members are those nineteen years and older.

Junior members shall be exempt from the $200 initiation fee required of senior members.

Junior members shall remain exempt from the $200 initiation fee as long as there is no lapse in their membership. Should their membership lapse after age nineteen, they will apply for membership as any other senior member and be required to pay the $200 initiation fee.

6. Renewal of membership will occur in January each year with proof of AMA membership required. Dues are mandatory by the February meeting. Membership dues will be required for the entire year for a renewal even if the member does not pay until later in the year. The member is not allowed flying or voting privileges until membership is paid. In addition to the required $200 initiation fee, dues for new members will be charged for the remainder of the year at the rate of 1/12th of the total year's dues times the number of months left in the year.
7. No special assessments or dues increase will be levied on the club members except by vote at a general club meeting which is approved by two-thirds of the members present. A special assessment or dues increase must be announced at a public meeting and via email one month prior to any vote. Absentee voting will be by email and verified against the email address on file with the Treasurer.

Article 4: Meetings

1. Monthly meetings will be held at a time and place designated by the club officers and published in the club newsletter.

2. A simple majority will be over fifty percent of the members voting at the meeting.
3. Club officers may call a special meeting with no less than five days prior written notice of a special meeting or with notice in the prior two months newsletter. The purpose of the special meeting will be stated in the notice.

Article 5: Offices/Duties

1. Board of Directors—The Board of Directors will consist of five members, the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Safety Officer, and, if necessary, a member(s) at large. Official club business will be decided by three of the five directors. Club business will be consistent with the stated purposes and objectives of the AMA as set forth in its Bylaws and, where those Bylaws are not specified, vested in the sound discretion of the Board of Directors.
2. President—The president will preside at club meetings and will act as spokesperson in all matters pertaining to the club. He will make appointments and committee assignments as necessary. His appointee will make a periodic audit of the treasurer's books. The president will have discretionary spending of up to $300.00 without requiring club approval.
3. Vice-President—The vice-president will act for the president when the president is unable to serve. The vice-president will be chairman of club activities.
4. Secretary—The secretary will record minutes of each club meeting and handle all correspondence for club activities.
5. Treasurer—The treasurer will collect all money due and will keep a record of money disbursed by the club. The treasurer will submit a written or verbal account of the club finances at each meeting. The treasurer will maintain the membership database, verify AMA status and file TRCM release forms and applications.
6. Safety Committee Chairman/Safety Officer— The Safety Committee will consist of the Board of Directors. The safety officer will be responsible for chairing the safety committee and for ensuring all safety rules are enforced. This includes processing the grievance forms and following the existing grievance procedure documented in the Bylaws.

Article 6: Terms of Office

- 1 All officers of the club will serve for one calendar year. Officers are to be elected by a vote of a simple majority of those members present at the regular meeting in the month of December.
2. Nomination of officers will be made at the November meeting. Nominations may be made by any member either in person or by submitting a proxy nomination to an existing officer. All nominations for office will be emailed or published in the newsletter prior to the election.
3. A secret ballot is required for elections, for removal of a club officer, and for expulsion of a member from the club unless waived by a simple majority vote of the members present at the meeting.

Article 7: Vacancies

1. Vacancies in any office will be filled by appointment by the remaining officers and will serve the remainder of the term for the vacated office.
